2022

Order of the Palmetto

Established by Governor John C. West in 1971, the Order of the Palmetto is the State of South Carolina's highest civilian honor presented in recognition of a lifetime of extraordinary achievement, service, and contributions on a national or statewide scale.

- Only adult residents or natives of South Carolina are eligible for consideration
- An individual must be formally nominated in writing
- This is a once in a lifetime award. It cannot be awarded posthumously

Order of the Silver Crescent

The Order of the Silver Crescent was created by Governor David Beasley in 1997 and subsequently modified by Governor Jim Hodges. It is the State of South Carolina's service award. It was specifically established as the State of South Carolina's most prestigious service award recognizing a remarkable achievement or action, an individual's dedicated community service or volunteerism.

- Any resident or native of South Carolina is eligible for consideration
- An individual must be formally nominated in writing
- This award cannot be presented posthumously

Honorary Sandlapper

Governor Henry McMaster created the Honorary Sandlapper award in 2022. This honorary award was created for out-of-state residents to express gratitude, to recognize an extraordinary accomplishment, to generate good will, or to demonstrate the State's commitment or interest to an endeavor or project.

- Residents or natives of South Carolina cannot receive this award
- An individual must be formally nominated in writing
- This award cannot be presented posthumously

Official Certificates

Governor Nikki Haley began the practice of presenting official certificates of appreciation, congratulations, recognition, and acknowledgement to individuals or organizations in South Carolina.
