RE: Orders Reducing Sentences in South Carolina

Dear Governor McMaster:

Pursuant to your April 25, 2023 letter, enclosed is SCDC's Report on Reduced Sentences and the corresponding orders. The report covers January 2022 through April 24, 2023, and it reflects only information known to SCDC. Some orders are included out of an abundance of caution because SCDC does not have all relevant information, and some are included because SCDC cannot confirm whether victims were notified. One suggestion we would make is that South Carolina adopt a uniform Amended Sentence Sheet that includes a check box that would indicate compliance with the South Carolina Victims Bill of Rights.

Please let me know if you have any questions or if you need further information.

Sincerely,

Bryan P. Stirling
